Adventure Seekers...Here's What You Need to Know

Travel trailer insurance has similar inclusions as compared to automobile insurance coverage, but it is more comprehensive and specialized for trailer owners.

Types of Coverage Available

- Comprehensive/Collision Coverage – Protects your RV from damages such as fire, landslide, windstorm, vandalism and collision with another vehicle or objects.
- Liability-Only Travel Trailer Policy – Protects against accidental damage to other people's property or personal injury to individuals not listed on your policy.

Money-Saving Discounts Available for Travel Trailer Insurance

- Discounts for a good driving record or multiple policies placed with us
- Increasing your deductible to reduce your out-of-pocket premium
- Option for 12-month policy renewals
- Discounts for mature drivers

Additional Endorsements:

Consider also purchasing these endorsements for added protection:

- Towing and Roadside Assistance
- Emergency Expenses – Protection in case of a breakdown or damage to your travel trailer.
- Total Loss Replacement
- Accessories Endorsements – For items attached to your trailer, such as satellite dishes, antennas and awnings.
- Full-Timer Trailer Coverage – For those who live in their travel trailer most of the year.
- Campsite/Vacation Liability – Coverage while your travel trailer is parked in an RV park.
- Low Branch Collision – Protection against damages from low-hanging branches to your trailer, awnings and air conditioning units.

Before you hit the road, call Integrity Insurance Agency, Inc. today at (785) 233-5401 to learn more about our travel trailer insurance options.

What Kind of Wheels Are You Driving or Towing?

Travel trailer or RV coverage will provide protection for the following vehicles:

- Fifth-wheels
- Pop-up campers
- Stationary travel trailers
- Park model travel trailers
- Truck-mounted campers

What are the Benefits of a Travel Trailer Policy?

Since your trailer is more than just your vehicle, you need insurance that covers more than a typical automobile insurance policy. Without a specific insurance policy, none of the following situations would be covered in the event of a loss.

- You store things in your travel trailer that you would not keep in your car, including jewelry, a computer, television, outdoor camping gear or a camcorder.
- When parking your trailer at a campsite, you are liable for other people's safety around your trailer.
- If you have an accident while traveling, you will need a place to stay while the trailer is being repaired.
